

EVIDENTLY BETTER

New resources & news from your Evidence & Library Service

Changes at Indigo

The library in the Indigo Building, Maghull Health Park has recently been upgraded to provide a more comfortable and private working environment.

The computer workspace now benefits from a noise resistant partition wall, creating a clear separation from the agile working area, helping to reduce distractions for colleagues.

The enhanced layout offers improved privacy and a better experience for staff who wish to study, work, or access library resources.

Whether you're studying, working, or accessing library resources, we invite you to visit and enjoy the enhanced space and facilities.

We have also updated the classification of our stock using the latest system, helping to keep books on similar topics together so they are easier to find and browse.

“Librarians have always been among the most thoughtful and helpful people. They are teachers without a classroom.”

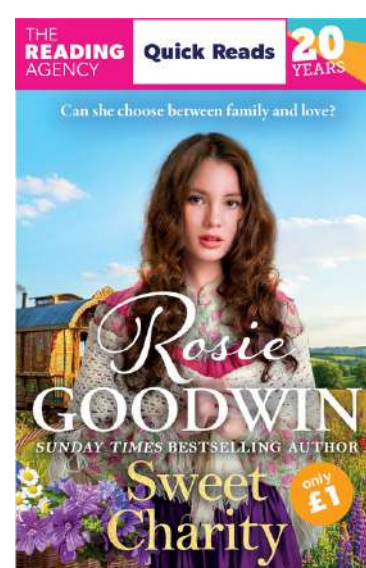

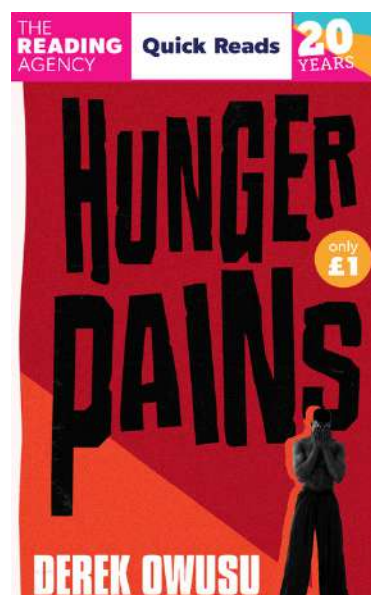

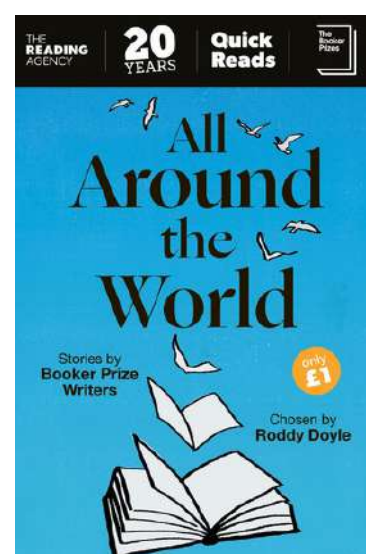

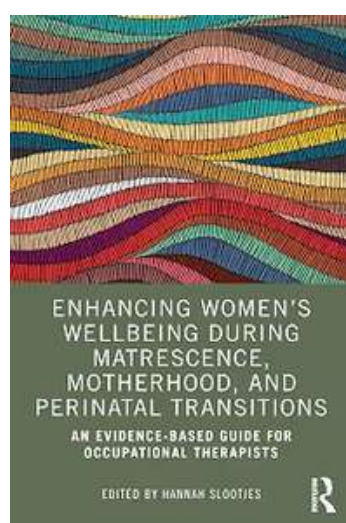

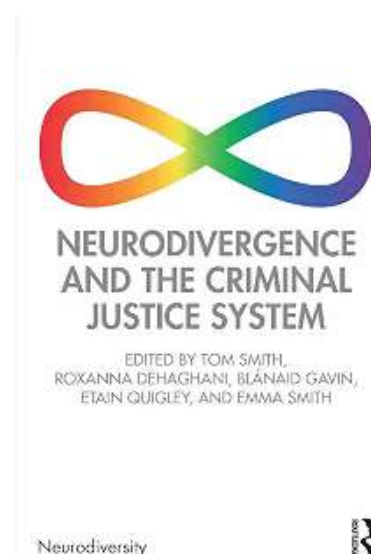

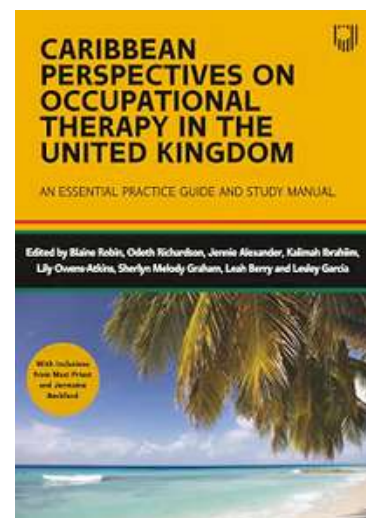

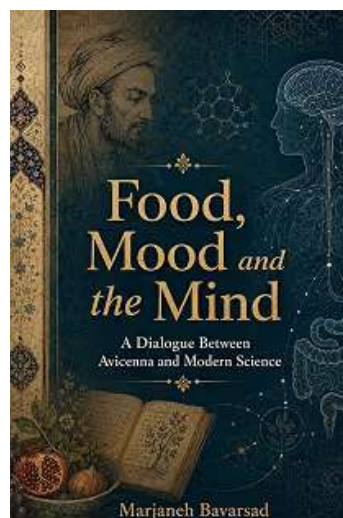

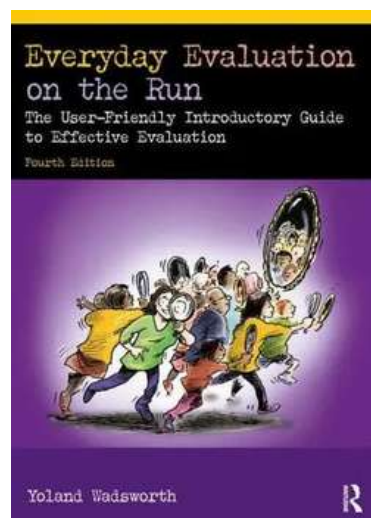

–Willard Scott

New books

All of these titles are available to loan and can be sent to one of our three libraries for you to collect.

Spotlight on...

- You have access to hundreds of journals
- Covering lots of topics

To access them you might need your OpenAthens Account details.

Just search for a topic that you are interested in and a list of journal titles will come up, choose a journal, which will then open showing the years and volumes that we have access to. You can then pick the articles that you wish to read.

Journals

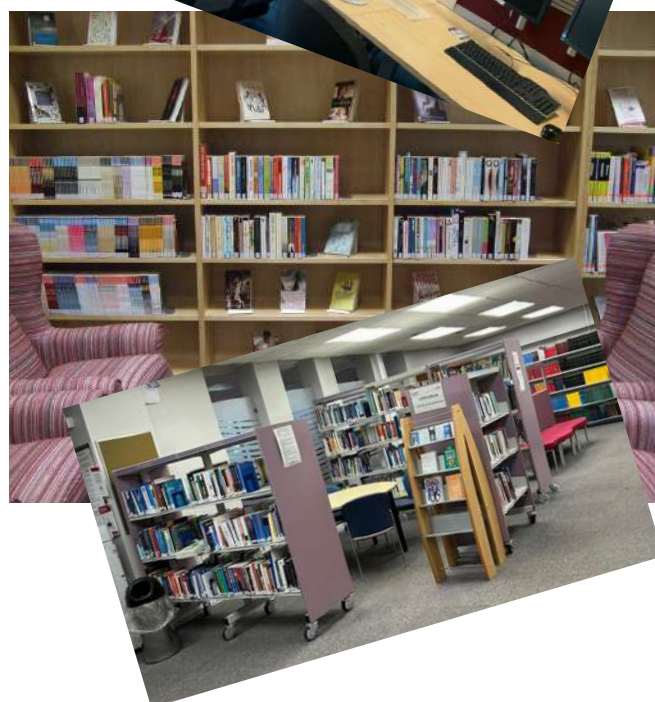

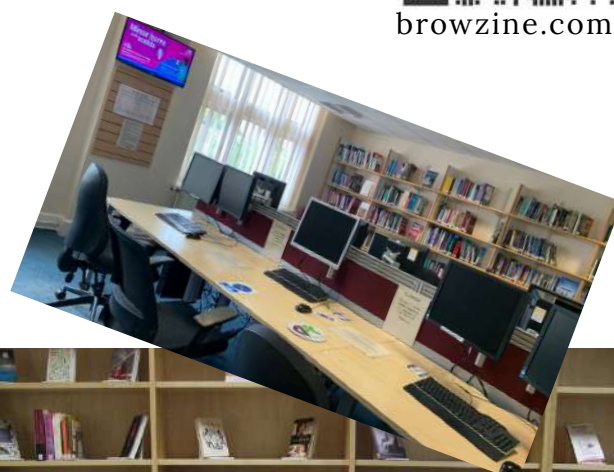

Did you know....

that all staff and students have access to our library services across three locations?

 Indigo Library, Rathbone Hospital Library, and Hollins Park House Library each provide welcoming learning environments designed to support staff and students with their study, research, and professional development needs.

Across the three sites, users have access to a wide range of print and digital resources, including books, journals, and evidence-based information sources, as well as dedicated study spaces.

Whether you are undertaking coursework, conducting research, seeking information for clinical practice, or pursuing continuing professional development, our libraries are here to help. Visit our website to find out more: www.evidentlybetter.org
